

Internet Safety

If you see something you're not comfortable with, tell someone you trust.

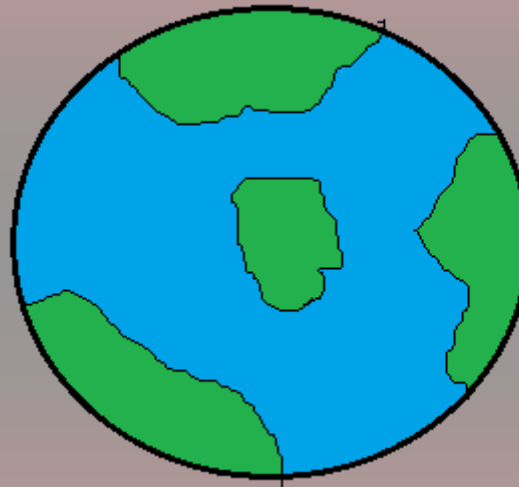

Always have an adult present when you're going online.

Make sure you don't tell any of your private information.

When you're playing on games, make sure you don't buy anything on app purchases.

Never meet up with people that you meet online.

Communicate kindly to one another when you are online.

Zaynab Ali